

READY FOR CAMPAIGN
TO RAISE $250,000 FOR
A BIG NEWSBOYS' HOME

Forty-nine Teams of Seven
Men Each Will Divide City
Into Working Sections.

Plans for the organization of the teams in the ten-day campaign to raise $250,000 for the Newsboys' Home Club were perfected at a meeting of the campaign executive committee held yesterday (Tuesday) at the City Lunch Club, 160 Broadway, at which Joseph P. Day presided.

It was announced that the campaign would begin on May 4 with a striking force of seven sections of seven teams each, there being seven men on each team, and making a total of 297 men actively engaged in the campaign for contributions. The members of the teams will meet each day at luncheon, report what progress they have made during the previous twenty-four hours and receive fresh lists of names of persons to be seen.

"It's the busy men we want to get on the teams," said S. M. Hard, who is in charge of the campaign headquarters in suite #205, World Building. "We want the men who are doing things, the men who hustle and do their business quickly. We can accomplish more and in quicker time with small committees of busy men than we can with a large body of men who have little to do."

Fire Commissioner Robert Adamson, who attended the luncheon, was enthusiastic over the campaign and readily accepted the captaincy of one of the teams. Others who became captains were: C. C. Carty, J. C. Carson, Dr. Julian M. Gerard, Joseph P. Day, William Edwin Hall, E. Wood McCloud, W. T. Perkins, J. Clark Reed, William A. Scully, Thomas H. Watkins, George A. Washington, Frank L. Cohen and Jessie Weinberg.

The Women's Team Committee, of which Miss Anna Riddle, Chairman, met in the morning at the Hotel Belmont and discussed the selection of team captains and the organization of the women's teams along the same lines as the men's teams.

The Women's Team Committee will meet again next Monday morning, April 12, at the Hotel Belmont at 10:45.

SICK MESSAGE LURES ALLEGED FIREBUG HERE

Bonura, "Called" to Brother, Arrested for Blaze That Impaled Fifteen Lives.

A plainly dressed man twirling a cane approached the building at No. 2222 De Kalb Avenue, Williamsburg, early to-day and met Detectives Paton, Woods and O'Connell lounging in front of the place.

"Are you Vincent Bonura?" O'Connell asked.

"Sure. That's my name," was the reply. "I got a telegram saying my brother's very sick here. I just came from Somerville, Mass. How is my brother?"

"He isn't sick at all," said O'Connell, showing his badge. "We sent the message." Bonura was taken to the Hamburg Avenue station, where he learned that Mrs. Teresa Huber and her daughter, Mary, now residing on No. 1025 De Kalb Avenue, for seeing fire at Mrs. Huber's dry goods store at Hamburg Avenue and Stockton Street, last fall, accused him of engineering the plot. Bonura was enraged to marry Miss Huber. It is charged he raised an insurance policy from $1,500 to $10,000 and then put many links of mouse skins filled with horsehair in the store on the main floor of an apartment building. Firemen rescued more than a dozen persons from the flames.
